

ANDREW JIMENEZ

San Antonio, TX andrewjimenezwork@gmail.com

Education: San Antonio College San Antonio, TX
Major: Radio-Television-Broadcasting (2017-20)

International School of the Americas San Antonio, TX
High School Graduate: Spring 2016

Qualifications:

- Scriptwriting experience with University of North Texas online show Nerd Alert (writing news segments and skits).
- Courses taken in TV Production, Field Production, Screenwriting, Video Editing, and TV/Radio Announcing at San Antonio College.
- Two years' experience interning and freelance work with local video production agency.
- Experience in operating studio cameras, lights, audio, and teleprompter.
- Over 100 hours of volunteer experience with multiple organizations.

Work History: VKNG Video Production Agency, Intern and Freelance Production Assistant (2017-19)

- Worked on over 10 on-site productions ranging in subjects such as music, fashion, manufacturing, and company events.
- Expertise working on location to create professional video content for businesses using RED and Canon cameras, LED and bulb lighting, and audio equipment.
- Internship activities included building equipment, loading gear for transportation, and shadowing director during the shooting and editing process.

Volunteer Work: San Antonio Public Library (2015-19)

- Over 80 service hours volunteered.
- Volunteered in the teen department and interacted with a diverse group of youth, assisting them with their homework and library related needs. This also extended to helping library employees and adult visitors.
- Taught three class "Do It Yourself Video Production" course on how to use equipment and the importance of video production skillset in a modern workspace.

- Remaining volunteer hours done thorough multiple organizations such as the San Antonio Children's Museum and Haven for Hope.

Skills: Experience in using Microsoft Word, basic video and photo editing programs in the Adobe Suite (Premiere and Photoshop),